ROAD SCHOLAR

Scholarships

Dear Scholarship Applicant,

Thanks to the generous support of our donors, every year we award scholarships to lifelong learners in need. Since our earliest days, we have set aside resources to ensure that adults with limited financial means would be able to experience a Road Scholar learning adventure. We are a true university of the world, and our scholarships can turn the dream of experiencing one of our thousands of educational travel adventures into a reality. Our scholarships also enhance the program experience for all participants by welcoming individuals with diverse life perspectives to fully participate in our learning communities.

Generally, scholarships are awarded to recipients whose household income is less than 80 percent of the median household income in their state of residency (see the enclosed table). Income eligibility alone doesn't guarantee a scholarship, nor does a household income higher than the guideline automatically disqualify you. You will also have the opportunity in a personal statement to tell us why you are requesting a scholarship. This may include special personal, financial or medical circumstances.

We encourage you to submit an application and share your story with us. Pick an eligible program you'd like to attend in the United States or Canada and use the personal statement section of the application to tell us why this program inspires you and what circumstances make it difficult for you to attend without a scholarship. This is your chance to tell us about yourself and what the opportunity would mean for you to go on a Road Scholar learning adventure.

We recommend that you submit your application at least 3 months prior to your selected program start date. If your application is approved, we'll award you a scholarship toward the cost of the program. Please read the following sections for important information about the application requirements and what to expect if your application is approved.

We're so glad you want to experience the joys of learning with Road Scholar. We can't wait for you to join us.

Sincerely,

James Moses Road Scholar President

THE BASICS: WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT SCHOLARSHIPS

Who can apply for a scholarship?

We accept scholarship applications from anyone who meets all of the following criteria:

- At least 50 years of age
- Lives in the United States
- Meets the financial eligibility guideline (see enclosed table) and/or demonstrates financial need in the personal statement
- Has not taken a Road Scholar program in the last two years and is not currently enrolled in a Road Scholar program

Which programs are eligible for scholarships?

You can apply for a scholarship toward the cost of any program that meets all of the following criteria:

- It costs NO MORE than $2,500.
- It takes place in the United States or Canada. Please note that deposit requirements vary by program.
- Your application must include the program number and date of a specific program that costs $2,500 or less.
- If you are awarded a scholarship, you must apply it toward the program and date specified in your application. You cannot reserve it for a program to be selected in the future.

What happens if your application is approved?

Here's how the scholarship works:

- The scholarship is applied toward the cost of the program you selected in your application.
- The amount of the scholarship award will be up to $2,000, based on the program cost and the required deposit.
- At minimum, you will pay the applicable deposit for the program selected.
- You will pay the balance of the program cost after the scholarship has been applied.

What happens if you send in an incomplete application?

To make sure your application is reviewed, please use the checklist at the end of the application. Incomplete applications cannot be reviewed. We will not be able to notify you if your application is incomplete.

What if your plans change?

We know that in rare instances a scholarship recipient may have to adjust their travel plans. Here are some things to keep in mind:

- Remember: Your program deposit is non-refundable and is used to cover our costs if you have to cancel your program or transfer to another.
- If you cancel your enrollment in the program, the scholarship becomes void.
- If Road Scholar cancels your program, the scholarship can be transferred to another program without fees.
- If after enrollment you decide to transfer to another eligible program, the scholarship may be transferred along with the enrollment. The corresponding transfer fees will apply.
- Your scholarship can't be transferred to another person.

Is there anything the scholarship doesn't cover?

The scholarship is applied to the cost of the program only. It does not cover ...

- The cost of transportation to and from a program.
- Any additional material costs or expenses.

What are you expected to do when you return from your program?

When you get back from your adventure, we ask that you do a few things for us. If you fail to do the following, we may not award you a scholarship in the future.

- Complete an evaluation after the program.
- Write a thank-you letter to the donor(s) who funded your scholarship.
- Post an online review and photos. We can help you with this if you need.
- Allow Road Scholar to use your personal statement and thank-you letter when we report to donors and tell others about our scholarships.

These terms, conditions and eligibility are subject to change without notice.

Scholarship Application

INSTRUCTORS

Please read these instructions carefully before applying for a scholarship.

Please complete one application per person. In order to be reviewed by the Financial Assistance Committee, all parts of the application must be complete, including the program number and date for which you are applying. Please answer the questions thoughtfully and thoroughly. Your answers will be used to determine eligibility, and incomplete applications will not be reviewed. Please use the checklist at the end of the application to ensure that your submission is complete and eligible.

We cannot review an application for a program with a start date of less than 6 weeks or an enrollment that has already been paid in full. The review of an application takes 4–6 weeks once it has been received by the committee; applications are reviewed in the order that they are received and cannot be expedited. Therefore, please ensure that you are submitting this application early enough to allow time to enroll and make your travel arrangements after you receive your award letter. We recommend that you apply at least 3 months prior to your selected program start date.

If you have any questions regarding scholarships, you may contact us by emailing scholarships@roadscholar.org.

If you would like the Committee to consider any extraordinary personal, financial, medical or other circumstances or expenses, please describe them in detail in your Personal Statement.

YOUR PERSONAL STATEMENT

The purpose of your personal statement is to help determine your financial need as Road Scholar considers your application for a scholarship. We have a limited number of scholarships we can award every year, and your personal statement can be a deciding factor between one application and another.

Please tell us why you are requesting financial assistance to attend a Road Scholar program. If applicable, be sure to include as many details as possible about:

- Income challenges (current income sources, employment or income changes, layoffs, reasons for early retirement or parttime work).
- Medical expenses (extraordinary expenses incurred by you, a spouse, a dependent or a loved one for whom you are caring).
- Emergency or temporary expenses (economic hardships resulting from catastrophic events, natural disasters, accidents, funeral expenses, etc.).
- General challenges that constrain your monthly income or budget (i.e. barriers to working such as disability, lack of transportation, family obligations).
- Any other expenses or circumstances that you would like the Financial Assistance Committee to consider.

Note: 250-500 words are required. We encourage you to type and attach your essay, if possible. Incomplete applications will not be reviewed.
